

NIKANUS

RED DRESS LEADERSHIP AWARD

Kennah Brant

Kennah is a multi-sport athlete hailing from the Mohawk Nation in Tyendinaga Mohawk Territory. She currently resides in Summerside, PEI, where she has captured the provincial titles in all her hockey, school, and club soccer teams in the past year. Although she has grown up in PEI, Kennah's participation in sports has helped her maintain a connection to her Mohawk heritage and cultivate friendships with Indigenous athletes in Mi'kma'ki.

“For me, sports and culture are tied together and have always played a role in developing my identity as a strong, female Mohawk leader. My culture, the way of my People, is a direct reflection of my desire to compete, to get better, to represent who I am, and who we are as a Peoples.”

